ART 115 Art Appreciation, ART 130 Art of Film, ART 151 History of Art, Prehistory to 1300, ART 154 Survey of Non-Western Art, ART 155 History of Photography, ART 231 The Story of Film to WWII, and ART 232 The Story of Film After WWII may be used to fulfill the fine arts requirement for the Associate in Arts, Associate in Science, and Associate in Engineering Science degrees.

ART 115 Art Appreciation, ART 130 Art of Film, ART 151 History of Art, Prehistory to 1300, ART 152 History of Art, 1300 to the Present, ART 154 Survey of Non-Western Art, and ART 155 History of Photography may be used to fulfill the liberal education requirement for the Associate of Applied Science degree.

All ART courses numbered 100 and above may also be applied to the major field and elective requirement for the AA and the AS degrees.

It is highly recommended that any student pursuing an AA degree or an AFA degree with a major in art take ART 101 Drawing I, ART 102 Drawing II, ART 109 2D Design Foundations, and ART 110 Design II during the first year of study.

ECC reserves the right to exhibit any student work produced in art classes and to reproduce this work in any and all college publications.

ART 101 Drawing I (3) 0,6

This introductory drawing studio course emphasizes the development of foundational drawing techniques and methods using a variety of drawing media. Students will learn how to draw from direct observation and generate artwork that reflects personal expression and individual style. Students will also apply design principles and theory in the examination of works of art. (1.1) Proficiency Credit Available Pass/No Credit Not Available.

In-District Tuition/Fees: $455 (effective 2024/25 academic year)

In-district tuition rates are subject to change based on Board approval.

Prerequisite: None

Semester(s) Offered: Fall, Spring and Summer

ART 102 Drawing II (3) 0,6

This intermediate drawing studio course will further develop the foundational drawing skills introduced in Drawing I. Students will be introduced to color theory principles and color application in generating artwork from direct observation and self-generated imagery. Students will explore how to express conceptual ideas and translate them into representational and abstract compositions that reflect design-focused problem solving. The course will allow students to strengthen use of technical vocabulary and design theory in the examination of works of visual art. (1.1) Proficiency Credit Available Pass/No Credit Not Available.

In-District Tuition/Fees: $455 (effective 2024/25 academic year)

In-district tuition rates are subject to change based on Board approval.

Prerequisite: Grade of C or better in ART 101 or consent of instructor

Semester(s) Offered: Fall, Spring and Summer

ART 103 Sculpture I (3) 6

Simple sculpture construction with a major emphasis in design, contour and mass. The materials to be incorporated into visual ideas are plastic, wood, metal, clay and found objects. (1.1) Proficiency Credit Available Pass/No Credit Not Available.

In-District Tuition/Fees: $495 (effective 2024/25 academic year)

In-district tuition rates are subject to change based on Board approval.

Prerequisite: None

Semester(s) Offered: Fall and Spring

ART 104 Sculpture II (3) 0,6

Continuation of 103 Sculpture I with greater emphasis upon complex sculptural forms, such as contour and mass. Also you will work with different materials such as wood and bronze. (1.1) Proficiency Credit Available Pass/No Credit Not Available.

In-District Tuition/Fees: $495 (effective 2024/25 academic year)

In-district tuition rates are subject to change based on Board approval.

Prerequisite: ART 103 or consent of instructor

Semester(s) Offered: Fall and Spring

ART 105 Ceramics I (3) 0,6

This course explores the use of hand building and wheel throwing techniques in pottery making. Students will use a variety of techniques in ceramic forming, surface decoration, glazing and firing. (1.1) Proficiency Credit Available Pass/No Credit Available.

In-District Tuition/Fees: $515 (effective 2024/25 academic year)

In-district tuition rates are subject to change based on Board approval.

Prerequisite: None

Semester(s) Offered: Fall, Spring and Summer

ART 106 Ceramics II (3) 0,6

This course further explores the use of hand building and wheel throwing techniques in pottery making and ceramic sculpture. Students will continue to develop their foundational skills and techniques in forming, surface decoration, glazing and firing, and will apply those techniques to generate complex ceramic forms. (1.1) Proficiency Credit Available Pass/No Credit Available.

In-District Tuition/Fees: $515 (effective 2024/25 academic year)

In-district tuition rates are subject to change based on Board approval.

Prerequisite: Grade of C or better in ART 105 or consent of instructor

Semester(s) Offered: Fall, Spring and Summer

ART 107 Painting I (3) 0,6

This course is an introduction to using foundational painting techniques and exploring color theory principles in acrylic and oil painting media. Students will study and practice using historical and contemporary approaches to painting. (1.1) Proficiency Credit Available Pass/No Credit Not Available.

In-District Tuition/Fees: $475 (effective 2024/25 academic year)

In-district tuition rates are subject to change based on Board approval.

Prerequisite: None

Semester(s) Offered: Fall, Spring and Summer

ART 108 Painting II (3) 0,6

This course further explores the use of traditional painting media and introduces students to non-traditional painting media and techniques. Students will create artwork that emphasizes individual experimentation and style that reflects historical and contemporary approaches in painting. (1.1) Proficiency Credit Available Pass/No Credit Not Available.

In-District Tuition/Fees: $475 (effective 2024/25 academic year)

In-district tuition rates are subject to change based on Board approval.

Prerequisite: Grade of C or better in ART 107 or consent of instructor

Semester(s) Offered: Fall, Spring and Summer

ART 109 2D Design Foundations (3) 0,6

This studio course introduces the foundational use of the elements and principles of design to create a portfolio of two-dimensional work. Students will explore using traditional and digital media to create work that reflects historic and contemporary aesthetics and personal expression. This course is a studio class exploring the fundamentals of the formal systems and basic elements of visual organization through two-dimensional design principles and theories (1.1) Proficiency Credit Available (3 FC) Pass/No Credit Not Available.

In-District Tuition/Fees: $465 (effective 2024/25 academic year)

In-district tuition rates are subject to change based on Board approval.

Prerequisite: None

Semester(s) Offered: Fall, Spring and Summer

ART 110 Design II (3) 0,6

Emphasis is on the structure of three-dimensional form and space. An introduction of basic three-dimensional design processes and how these relate to artist's concepts. Three-dimensional design ideas will be formulated and visualized through practice and utilization of various media and techniques. Slide presentations, lecture demonstrations, discussions and critiques are included. A continuation of basic design elements and principles, as they apply to three-dimensional form is stressed. (1.1) Proficiency Credit Available Pass/No Credit Not Available.

In-District Tuition/Fees: $495 (effective 2024/25 academic year)

In-district tuition rates are subject to change based on Board approval.

Prerequisite: ART 109 or consent of instructor

Semester(s) Offered: Spring

ART 111 Jewelry I (3) 0,6

Varied use of materials in making of jewelry; casting, building and soldering. Emphasis on design. Laboratory fee does not include cost of metal. (1.1) Proficiency Credit Available (2 EF) Pass/No Credit Not Available.

In-District Tuition/Fees: $495 (effective 2024/25 academic year)

In-district tuition rates are subject to change based on Board approval.

Prerequisite: None

Semester(s) Offered: Fall and Spring

ART 112 Jewelry II (3) 0,6

Continuation of 111 Jewelry I with greater exploration of conceptual and technical problems. (1.1) Proficiency Credit Available Pass/No Credit Not Available.

In-District Tuition/Fees: $495 (effective 2024/25 academic year)

In-district tuition rates are subject to change based on Board approval.

Prerequisite: ART 111 or consent of instructor

Semester(s) Offered: Fall and Spring

ART 113 Printmaking I (3) 0,6

This studio course introduces basic printmaking processes and equipment, with equal emphasis on concept and technique. Students are introduced to a variety of print media and methods, such as intaglio, relief, and monotype. Students develop and understanding of the medium and learn good studio habits; the safe and responsive handling of tools and materials; and the knowledge required for basic manipulation of the processes used production of a printed image. (1.1) Proficiency Credit Available Pass/No Credit Not Available.

In-District Tuition/Fees: $485 (effective 2024/25 academic year)

In-district tuition rates are subject to change based on Board approval.

Prerequisite: None

Semester(s) Offered: Fall and Spring

ART 114 Printmaking II (3) 0,6

This course further explores intaglio and relief printmaking, with an emphasis on color work and strengthening printing skills. Students learn techniques for producing color prints using single and multiple plate processes. A balanced outcome between technical and conceptual development is stressed in discussion and critiques. (1.1) Proficiency Credit Available Pass/No Credit Not Available.

In-District Tuition/Fees: $485 (effective 2024/25 academic year)

In-district tuition rates are subject to change based on Board approval.

Prerequisite: Grade of C or better in ART 113

Semester(s) Offered: Fall and Spring

ART 115 Art Appreciation (3) 3,0

Art Appreciation is a general introduction to the visual arts, including media, techniques, and history. Designed to foster a deeper appreciation of the creative processes of two- and three-dimensional art forms, methods, and media. This course examines the visual elements and principles of design and thematically surveys art styles and artistic movements from prehistory to the 21st century. (1.1) Fulfills the ECC/IAI General Education/Fine Arts requirement. IAI Course Number: F2 900 Proficiency Credit Not Available Pass/No Credit Available.

In-District Tuition/Fees: $415 (effective 2024/25 academic year)

In-district tuition rates are subject to change based on Board approval.

Prerequisite: Reading: Grade of C or better in RDG 091 or LTC 099, or satisfaction of other placement criteria. Writing: Grade of C or better in ENG 098 or LTC 099 or satisfaction of other placement criteria.

Semester(s) Offered: Fall, Spring and Summer

ART 117 Screen Printing (3) 0,6

This course covers the fundamental techniques required to produce hand-pulled screen prints and the principles behind them. Students will learn a wide variety screen print methods with an emphasis on photographic emulsion techniques. Class will consist of lectures, demonstrations, critiques, and studio time. The course incorporates the history of screen print and its role as fine art, mass media, and commercial tool. Projects are designed to challenge students to consider their ideas within this specific medium and its context within printmaking and contemporary art. (1.1) Proficiency Credit Available (3 F) Pass/No Credit Not Available.

In-District Tuition/Fees: $480 (effective 2024/25 academic year)

In-district tuition rates are subject to change based on Board approval.

Prerequisite: None

Semester(s) Offered: Fall and Spring

ART 120 Darkroom Photography I (3) 0,6

This course is an introduction to the art and mechanics of traditional black & white photography. Topics will include the use of a 35mm film SLR camera, the processing and printing of black & film, aesthetics, constructive critical discussion and the exploration of visual literacy. Over the course of the semester, the student will explore aesthetic and conceptual issues in the use of photography as a means of artistic production from both historical and contemporary models of thinking about the medium. Emphasis will be placed on using the photographic tools for personal expression, cultural observation and developing the student's individual artistic voice. (1.1) Proficiency Credit Available (2FE) Pass/No Credit Available SPECIAL NOTE: The manual film SLR cameras required in this course are provided for checkout.

In-District Tuition/Fees: $505 (effective 2024/25 academic year)

In-district tuition rates are subject to change based on Board approval.

Prerequisite: None

Semester(s) Offered: Fall and Spring

ART 122 Digital Photography (3) 0,6

This course will serve as an introduction to digital image capture and editing. Students will learn fundamental photographic concepts, the major functions of the digital camera, and the basics of professional image editing. The course will also cover basic workflow management strategies. An emphasis is placed on the creative application of the tools and techniques covered. Digital SLR cameras are provided for checkout if needed.(1.1) Proficiency Credit Available Pass/No Credit Not Available. In-District Tuition/Fees: $505 (effective 2024/25 academic year)

In-district tuition rates are subject to change based on Board approval.

Prerequisite: Reading: Grade of C or better in RDG 091 or LTC 099, or satisfaction of other placement criteria.

Semester(s) Offered: Fall, Spring and Summer

ART 123 Digital Photography II (3) 0,6

This second level course is designed to build on foundational skills acquired in the introductory course, taking students deeper into the art and skill of digital photography. Content includes advanced camera controls, image manipulation software, scanning methods, and printing techniques. Students will discuss the impact of technology on photographic imaging as well as the effects on contemporary culture. The course will also investigate the aesthetic and conceptual issues within this evolving medium. Emphasis will be placed on using the tools for personal expression, cultural observation and developing the student's individual artistic voice. Digital cameras are available for checkout. This course is repeatable 3 times. (1.1) Proficiency Credit Available (2 EF) Pass/No Credit Not Available.

In-District Tuition/Fees: $475 (effective 2024/25 academic year)

In-district tuition rates are subject to change based on Board approval.

Prerequisite: Grade of C or better in ART 122 or consent of instructor

Semester(s) Offered: Varies

ART 124 Darkroom Photography II (3) 0,6

This course concentrates on the further development of skills and techniques established in ART 120. Students will continue to work with film and wet chemistry while exploring larger film formats and pursuing more conceptual uses of the medium as it relates to contemporary practice in art photography. Topics will include the use of medium and large format cameras, advanced printing techniques, digital/analog integration, exposure control, and analog manipulations. Emphasis will be placed on using the photographic tools for personal expression, cultural observation and developing the student's individual artistic voice. (1.1) Proficiency Credit Available (2 IF) Pass/No Credit Available.

In-District Tuition/Fees: $515 (effective 2024/25 academic year)

In-district tuition rates are subject to change based on Board approval.

Prerequisite: Grade of C or better in ART 120 or consent of instructor

Semester(s) Offered: Fall and Spring

ART 125 Alternative Process Photography (3) 0,6

This course will investigate alternative and historic non-silver photographic processes. A fusion of traditional analog and contemporary digital techniques will allow students to create experimental images using a variety of methods. This course is repeatable 3 times. (1.1) Proficiency Credit: Not Available Pass/No Credit: Available.

In-District Tuition/Fees: $455 (effective 2024/25 academic year)

In-district tuition rates are subject to change based on Board approval.

Prerequisite: None.

Semester(s) Offered: Varies

ART 130 Art of Film (3) 3,0

This course examines the art and craft of filmmaking to improve understanding and appreciation of the cinematic medium. Students will develop a vocabulary related to filmmaking practices and conventions. They will examine how meaning is influenced in films by the use of cameras, editing, lighting, sound and acting. Films of the 19th, 20th, and 21st century will be viewed and discussed, as well as different modes of film analysis. (1.1) Fulfills the ECC/IAI General Education/Fine Arts requirement.
